

Dawn Cunningham
Founder and Travel Professional

Just Pack And Go. Dawn chose that name for her travel business because that was what she wanted her clients to do. She would do all the work necessary for them to Just Pack And Go. And that's exactly what she does and has been doing since the summer of 2001 when she registered her fictitious name with the State of Florida.

Dawn loves to travel and it was her travel agent that encouraged her to share her travel savvy with her friends. So she tried it and she liked it. She found that she enjoyed planning their trips almost as much as going on her own travels. That started her in the role as an independent, outside agent for her travel agent. After Dawn's travel agent relocated, she took up the ball and ran with it, becoming certified, bonded, licensed (city, county and state) and went out on her own in 2001. Not surprisingly, she now has four independent consultants that works with her, one in Arizona, one in Oregon and two in Texas.

Dawn focuses her travel business on cruises to all destinations on the major cruise lines, travels to Europe, land only or land/air packages to all-inclusive resorts in the Bahamas, the Caribbean, and Mexico. In the US, she arranges travel to Hawaii and Las Vegas. She would love to do it all but finds it best to set limits so that she can focus on only a few things and do the very best for her clients in those areas. Personalized customer service is what Dawn offers because in this day of "do-it-yourself," using a travel consultant/professional (both preferred now over agent) is not a 'must do' to get where you want to go. That being said, the personal care and attention to details, along with travel experience of about 25 years, makes it seem effortless for her to get you where you want to go.
